- Senior Kasey Fagan has made her return to the lineup, starting each of the last four games after missing the previous eight due to injury. Fagan has recorded three hits and a run scored over the last four games.
- Over the team's last three games, and among players who have started all three, freshmen Tori Cooper, Loren Krzysko and Madison Yannetti lead the team in batting (.286) and have accounted for two hits apiece.
- In its last time out, Arkansas was tripped up on the road by Tulsa, falling 10-2 in six innings. The Razorbacks had six hits on the evening including RBIs from Devon Wallace and Shelby Hiers.

What They're Saying:

Devon Wallace

"I am excited and honored to have been drafted by the Pennsylvania Rebellion tonight. This is a wonderful opportunity for me to further my softball career and continue to play the game I love. I couldn't be more excited for the future of the NPF and to be able to represent the University of Arkansas at the next level."

Arkansas head coach Mike Larabee

"I would like to congratulate Devon on being selected in this year's NPF Draft. Devon has been a tremendous asset to our program both on and off the field throughout her career. It has been a joy to coach her and I have all the confidence that she will not only succeed, but excel professionally."

Devon is one of the top players to ever play softball at Arkansas. Her development into one of the most elite hitters in the country is a true testament to her hard work and dedication to the game. Devon has shown to have incredible plate discipline over her career and does not get herself out. Devon's power to all fields has been proven and it's evident she can and has hit the best pitching in the country.

As a co-captain this season, Devon has great leadership abilities off the field. Her academic record has been outstanding, balancing the demands of a nursing undergraduate degree with the demands of being a successful student-athlete at the University of Arkansas."

FRESHMEN STEP UP

Already with 20 of the 28 players on the roster as underclassmen, a trio of freshman, earning starting roles in recent games, have stepped up for Coach Larabee. Tori Cooper leads all underclassmen, batting .296 on the season. Hitting safely in four of the last five games, Cooper is batting an even .300 to go along with a .400 slugging percentage in the team's last four games. Loren Krzysko has equally been on a tear lately, hitting .300 and reaching base at a .500 clip in the last four games to go along with a pair of RBIs. The third freshman in the trio is Madison Yannetti, who leads the team in batting (.385) in SEC only games. Yannetti batted .333 with a pair of hits in the Ole Miss (3/27-29) series, and across the team's last eight games is batting .278, including connecting for her first career home run against Georgia (3/21).

ABLE TO RESPOND

One of Coach Larabee's preaching points to his team is being able to respond with runs after the opposing team scores. Arkansas has shown capable of doing just that, responding with at least one run in their next at-bat .326 percent of the time following the adversary scoring.

WALLACE REWRITES RECORD BOOK

Senior Devon Wallace has left her imprint all over the Arkansas softball record book. In the series against Texas (3/14-16), she set new program records for career home runs (44) and runs scored (176). The Double Oak, Texas, native additionally is the career leader in walks (225) and intentional walks (12). Wallace is currently on pace to be the career leader in a number of other categories as she currently ranks first for: highest batting average (.362), highest slugging percentage (.687), and highest on-base percentage (.567). Her 187 career hits is eighth, trailing leader Jessica Bachkora (2007-10) who has 227.

KASEY AT THE BAT

Senior Kasey Fagan has made her return to the lineup in the last four games after missing the team's previous eight due to injury. Fagan ranks second on the team with a .366 average, while seven of her 34 hits have gone for a double which leads the team. Fagan also posts eight multi-hit games this season and had a season-long 10-game hitting streak snapped against LSU March 6.

CANFIELD SWINGS AWAY

Junior Stephanie Canfield, a fixture near the top of the lineup thus far, has proven to be a triple-threat from the left side of the dish. With 10 career triples, the St. Joseph, Ill., native is tied for second all-time in school history, trailing leader Dayna Huckabee who has 12. Canfield has four triples this year alone, ranking fifth in the SEC. She has nine multi-hit games to go along with four multi-RBI games. While Wallace holds many school records, Canfield is also posting near record lines. Consider the numbers and rankings for Canfield's career statistics: second in batting average (.353), fourth in on-base percentage (.402), and is fifth in slugging percentage (.477).

PRODUCTION AT THE TOP

The 1-2-3 combination of Wallace, Fagan and Canfield at the top of the lineup proved potent in the first half of the season. The trio has combined for a .356 batting average, .456 OBP, .526 slugging, and account for 59 of the team's 134 RBIs.

FREE SOFTBALL

Arkansas has played in five extra innings games this season, posting a 2-3 record. Three of those games have come at Bogle Park. Both Arkansas wins in extras came on Feb. 27 in Hammond, La., when Kasey Fagan led the Razorbacks to walk-off wins against Saint Louis and UT-Martin in the eighth inning.

TOUGH START

The beginning of Arkansas' 2015 SEC slate proved to be one of the more difficult ones in the conference. The Razorbacks were one of three teams in the conference (Kentucky, Missouri) to open with two consecutive road series, but Arkansas is the only team to have both of those road series come against teams ranked inside the top 10. The Razorbacks were swept in the two opening series, losing to then-No. 5/5 LSU (March 6-8) and then-No.8/8 Georgia (March 20-21).
