Hey yo Devo! Senior Devon Wallace became Arkansas' all-time home runs leader, hitting her 44th career homer against Texas (3/16). Wallace also set the record for career runs scored on March 14, currently with 172 and counting.

ROUNDING THE BASES

- Following a spring break trip that saw the Razorbacks play four consecutive road games, Arkansas returns home for six of its next seven starting with a three-game set at Bogle Park against Ole Miss March 27-29.
- Arkansas is coming off a win March 24 at Jacksonville State. The 6-2 decision in favor of the Razorbacks snapped a six-game slide for Arkansas after being swept in back-to-back series against Texas (March 14-16) and at No. 8/8 Georgia (March 20-21). Freshman Tori Cooper tallied a career-high three hits, including one for extra bases, in the streak-snapping victory.
- Not having senior Kasey Fagan in the lineup the last eight games has certainly left a void for the Razorbacks, however, freshman Madison Yannetti has stepped up and filled in admirably. Consider in the last eight games, Yannetti is batting .261 with four RBIs, while slugging .435 and mashing her first career home run in that span.

WALLACE REWRITES RECORD BOOK

Senior Devon Wallace has left her imprint all over the Arkansas softball record book. In the series against Texas (3/14-16), she set new program records for career home runs (44) and runs scored (172). The Double Oak, Texas, native additionally is the career leader in walks (219) and intentional walks (12). Wallace is currently on pace to be the career leader in a number of other categories as she currently ranks first for: highest batting average (.365), highest slugging percentage (.696), and highest on-base percentage (.568). Her 185 career hits is ninth, trailing leader Jessica Bachkora (2007-10) who has 227.

KASEY AT THE BAT

Despite missing the last eight games, senior Kasey Fagan still has team-leading statistics. Fagan ranks second on the team with a .397 average, while seven of her 31 hits have gone for a double which leads the team. Fagan also posts eight multi-hit games this season and had a season-long 10-game hitting streak snapped against LSU March 6.

CANFIELD SWINGS AWAY

Junior Stephanie Canfield, a fixture near the top of the lineup thus far, has proven to be a triple-threat from the left side of the dish. With 10 career triples, the St. Joseph, Ill., native is tied for second all-time in school history, trailing leader Dayna Huckabee who has 12. Canfield has four triples this year alone, ranking fifth in the SEC. She has nine multi-hit games to go along with four multi-RBI games. While Wallace holds many school records, Canfield is also posting near record lines. Consider the numbers and rankings for Canfield's career statistics: second in batting average (.357), third in on-base percentage (.405), and is fifth in slugging percentage (.483).

PRODUCTION AT THE TOP

The 1-2-3 combination of Wallace, Fagan and Canfield at the top of the lineup proved potent through the season's first 23 games. The trio combined for a .383 batting average, .371 OBP, .560 slugging, and accounted for 47 of the team's 92 RBIs at the time. With Fagan missing the last eight games but her return imminent, Wallace and Canfield have certainly done their fair share in picking up the slack. Over the last eight games, the duo at the top of the lineup is combining to hit .341 with 11 RBIs and eight hits apiece.

TOUGH START

The beginning of Arkansas' 2015 SEC slate has shown to be one of the more difficult ones in the conference. The Razorbacks were one of three teams in the conference (Kentucky, Missouri) to open with two consecutive road series, but Arkansas is the only team to have both of those road series come against teams ranked inside the top 10. The Razorbacks were swept in the opening series', losing to then-No. 5/5 LSU (March 6-8) and then-No.8/8 Georgia (March 20-21).

ALL OVER THE MAP

The Razorbacks have gotten acquainted with road travel in the first month of the season. Poor weather conditions cancelled home tournaments scheduled for Feb. 20-22 and Feb. 27-March 1. In fact, Arkansas played at the Dot Richardson Invite Feb. 13-15 in Clermont, Fla., and with winter weather back home, the team stayed in Florida for the week and competed at the Diamond 9 Citrus Classic in Orlando Feb. 20-21. In total, the Razorbacks were gone for 11 days. Overall, between Feb. 5 and March 26, Arkansas has been on the road for 32 of 50 (.640) days.

FRESHMEN FILL IN

Having senior Kasey Fagan out of the lineup for eight games due to injury has given ample opportunity for others to step up. Freshman Madison Yannetti has started all eight of those games with five starts coming at shortstop. During the last eight, Yannetti is batting .261 while slugging .435 and fielding at a rate of .958. Consider in her last three games, however, she is batting .375 and launched her first career home run at Georgia. Redshirt Loren Krzysko has come on in the last three games as well, batting .429 while slugging .714 and tallying three RBIs. Freshman Tori Cooper, starting the last two games, is coming off a career-high three hits at Jacksonville State (3/24) while batting .600 with one extra-base hit in the last two contests.

OLE MISS CONNECTION

Arkansas does not have any players on its roster from the state of Mississippi, but there's still a link between Ole Miss and Arkansas. Redshirt freshman Rachel Box's uncle, Carl Lafferty, is an assistant baseball coach for the Rebels.
