ROUNDING THE BASES

- The Razorbacks host Texas in their first home series of the 2015 campaign. Arkansas is coming off a pair of midweek games where it finished 1-1. The Razorbacks dropped their home opener against Tulsa, 5-4, on March 10, but rebounded to power past Missouri State on the road March 12, 11-5.
- The win over Missouri State stopped a four-game slide for the Razorbacks. Arkansas pounded out season-highs for hits (14) and runs (11) against the Bears.
- Senior Devon Wallace is on pace to become the program's all-time leader in home runs and runs scored. With 43 career home runs, Wallace is currently tied with Dixon (2007-10) for the most in school history, needing just one more to set a new record. She has three homers this season, including two in each of the last two games. With a career on-base percentage of .573, Wallace is on pace to break the record for most runs, as her 166 career runs scored is tied with Bachkora (2007-10).
- Arkansas gets back into SEC play, heading to Athens, Ga., to play Georgia March 20-22.

WALLACE IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Senior Devon Wallace has left her imprint all over the Arkansas softball record. Among the categories she currently leads in includes: highest batting average (.366), highest slugging percentage (.704), highest on-base percentage (.573), most walks (214), and most intentional walks (12). Wallace is on pace to become the school's all-time leader in a number of other categories as well. She currently is tied for first for runs scored (166). Wallace is ninth all-time for hits (178), trailing leader Bachkora who has 227. She has 43 career home runs, needing just one more to set the record.

KASEY AT THE BAT

Kasey Fagan has not wasted any time in getting her senior season off to a good start. Starting in 23 of 24 games at shortstop, Fagan is second on the team in batting and 20th in the conference with a .397 average. Of her 31 hits, seven have gone for doubles which ranks tied for fifth in the SEC. Fagan also posts eight multi-hit games this season and had a season-long 10-game hitting streak snapped against LSU March 6.

CANFIELD CAN

Junior Stephanie Canfield, a fixture near the top of the lineup thus far, has proven to be a triple-threat from the left side of the dish. With nine career triples, the St. Joseph, Ill., native is third all-time in school history, trailing leader Dayna Huckabee who has 12. She has six multi-hit games this season and is third on the team in batting with a .329 average. Having reached base in 20 of 24 games, she is 9-11 (.818) on stolen base attempts.

HOME AWAY FROM HOME

The Razorbacks have gotten acquainted with road travel in the first month of the season. Poor weather conditions cancelled home tournaments scheduled for Feb. 20-22 and Feb. 27-March 1. In fact, Arkansas played at the Dot Richardson Invite Feb. 13-15 in Clermont, Fla., and with winter weather back home, the team stayed in Florida for the week and competed at the Diamond 9 Citrus Classic in Orlando Feb. 20-21. In total, the Razorbacks were gone for 11 days. Overall, between Feb. 5 and March 9, Arkansas had been on the road for 23 of the 32 days.

UNDERCLASSMEN PRODUCTION

With 20 of 28 players on this season's roster either a freshman or sophomore, plenty of production is being turned in by underclassmen. Sophomore Shelby Hiers leads the charge for all underclassmen, batting .318 with an OBP of .455. Sophomores Nicole Schroeder (4) and Shelby Hiers (3) are responsible for seven of the team's 15 home runs.

IN THE CIRCLE

With all four pitchers underclassmen, sophomore Sydney Wright heads the charge on the staff. Appearing in 21 of 24 games with 11 starts, she has an 8-3 record to go along with a 2.88 earned-run average. She has five complete games already this season and two have come in shutout variety. Wright is not one to give away free bases, either, tallying a strikeout-to-walk ratio of 2.3-to-1. Freshman Allison Stewart is second on the team in wins with a 4-4 mark. Starting seven games with one complete game shutout, she owns an ERA of 4.00.

SCOUTING TEXAS

Texas is 15-8 on the 2015 season, with a mark of 4-1 in its last five. Erin Shireman has started all 23 games and leads the team with a .379 batting average to go along with six home runs and 24 RBIs. In the circle, Erica Wright has appeared in 13 games, posting a 1.68 earned-run average and a 6-4 record.
