In the Box

#30 Devon Wallace
Sr. | INF/1B
Batting: .379
Slugging: .568
OBP: .556
Hits: 36
HR: 4
RBI: 22
BB: 35

Hey yo Devo! Senior Devon Wallace became Arkansas' all-time home runs leader, hitting her 44th career homer against Texas (3/16). Wallace also set the record for career runs scored on March 14, currently with 175 and counting.

ROUNDING THE BASES

- Following a stretch of four games last week where the Razorbacks finished 1-3, Arkansas will look to get back on track Tuesday evening when it heads to Tulsa, Okla., to play the Golden Hurricane.
- Freshman Tori Cooper led the way offensively for the Razorbacks in the three-game series against Ole Miss, batting .333 in three starts while knocking in a pair of runs and leading the team in hits (3). In five at-bats across two starts and a pinch-hit appearance, redshirt sophomore Nicole Schroeder batted .400 and slugged .625 including an RBI double against Ole Miss. Freshman Madison Yannetti continues her strong play in recent games as she batted .333 in the Ole Miss series and is batting .312 with a .500 slugging percentage in the team's last seven games.
- Senior Kasey Fagan made her return to the lineup against Ole Miss, starting all three games after having to miss the team's previous eight following an injury. Fagan recorded two hits and scored a run in her first three games back.
- Arkansas will be making the return trip to Tulsa as the teams are meeting up for the second time this season.

FRESHMEN STEP UP

Already with 20 of the 28 players on the roster as underclassmen, a trio of freshman, earning starting roles in recent games, have stepped up for Coach Larabee. Tori Cooper leads all underclassmen, batting .308 on the season. On a four-game hitting streak, Cooper is batting an even .500 to go along with a .667 slugging percentage in the team's last four games. Loren Krzysko has equally been on a tear lately, hitting .364 and reaching base in each of the last four games. She also has three RBIs in that span. The third freshman in the trio is Madison Yannetti, who leads the team in batting (.385) in SEC only games. Yannetti batted .333 with a pair of hits in the Ole Miss series, and across the team's last seven games is batting .312, including connecting for her first career home run against Georgia (3/21).

WALLACE REWRITES RECORD BOOK

Senior Devon Wallace has left her imprint all over the Arkansas softball record book. In the series against Texas (3/14-16), she set new program records for career home runs (44) and runs scored (175). The Double Oak, Texas, native additionally is the career leader in walks (225) and intentional walks (12). Wallace is currently on pace to be the career leader in a number of other categories as she currently ranks first for: highest batting average (.362), highest slugging percentage (.689), and highest on-base percentage (.568). Her 186 career hits is eighth, trailing leader Jessica Bachkora (2007-10) who has 227.

KASEY AT THE BAT

Senior Kasey Fagan has made her return to the lineup after missing the team's previous eight. Fagan ranks second on the team with a .367 average, while seven of her 33 hits have gone for a double which leads the team. Fagan also posts eight multi-hit games this season and had a season-long 10-game hitting streak snapped against LSU March 6.

CANFIELD SWINGS AWAY

Junior Stephanie Canfield, a fixture near the top of the lineup thus far, has proven to be a triple-threat from the left side of the dish. With 10 career triples, the St. Joseph, Ill., native is tied for second all-time in school history, trailing leader Dayna Huckabee who has 12. Canfield has four triples this year alone, ranking fifth in the SEC. She has nine multi-hit games to go along with four multi-RBI games. While Wallace holds many school records, Canfield is also posting near record lines. Consider the numbers and rankings for Canfield's career statistics: second in batting average (.353), fourth in on-base percentage (.402), and is fifth in slugging percentage (.477).

PRODUCTION AT THE TOP

The 1-2-3 combination of Wallace, Fagan and Canfield at the top of the lineup proved potent in the first half of the season. The trio has combined for a .357 batting average, .458 OBP, .530 slugging, and account for 58 of the team's 132 RBIs.

TOUGH START

The beginning of Arkansas' 2015 SEC slate has shown to be one of the more difficult ones in the conference. The Razorbacks were one of three teams in the conference (Kentucky, Missouri) to open with two consecutive road series, but Arkansas is the only team to have both of those road series come against teams ranked inside the top 10. The Razorbacks were swept in the two opening series, losing to then-No. 5/5 LSU (March 6-8) and then-No.8/8 Georgia (March 20-21).

ALL OVER THE MAP

The Razorbacks have gotten acquainted with road travel in the first month of the season. Poor weather conditions cancelled home tournaments scheduled for Feb. 20-22 and Feb. 27-March 1. In fact, Arkansas played at the Dot Richardson Invite Feb. 13-15 in Clermont, Fla., and with winter weather back home, the team stayed in Florida for the week and competed at the Diamond 9 Citrus Classic in Orlando Feb. 20-21. In total, the Razorbacks were gone for 11 days. Overall, between Feb. 5 and March 26, Arkansas had been on the road for 32 of 50 (.640) days.

FREE SOFTBALL

Arkansas has played in five extra innings games this season, posting a 2-3 record. Three of those games have come at Bogle Park. Both of Arkansas' wins in extras came on Feb. 27 in Hammond, La., when Kasey Fagan led the Razorbacks to walk-off wins against Saint Louis and UT-Martin.
