ROUNDING THE BASES

- Following a weekend competing in non-conference, the Razorbacks slide right back into SEC action this week when it heads to Athens, Ga., to play No. 8/8 Georgia. Arkansas is coming off three consecutive losses at home to Texas, two of which were decided in extra innings.
- The series against Texas served as the record-breaking grounds for senior Devon Wallace. On March 14, Wallace scored a run in the fourth inning, marking her 167th career run scored and setting a new Razorback softball record. Wallace broke a second school record on March 16. Leading off the bottom of the third, the co-captain launched a towering home run to right center for her 44th career homer, marking the most in school history.
- The combination of Wallace and Stephanie Canfield at the top of the lineup proved particularly productive in the three-game set against Texas. Both players had identical on-base percentages (.692) and were each over 1.000 for slugging (Wallace 1.000, Canfield 1.111). Wallace led the team in batting (.600) while Canfield paced the team in RBIs (6).
- The Razorbacks' opening schedule in the SEC has been established as the toughest in the conference. Consider this: Arkansas is the only team in the 13-team SEC to open with its first two series coming on the road against teams ranked inside the top 10. The Razorbacks opened SEC play March 6-8 and were swept by then-No. 5 LSU.

WALLACE REWRITES RECORD BOOK

Senior Devon Wallace has left her imprint all over the Arkansas softball record book. In the series against Texas (3/14-16), she set new program records for career home runs (44) and runs scored (171). The Double Oak, Texas, native additionally is the career leader in walks (218) and intentional walks (12). Wallace is currently on pace to be the career leader in a number of other categories as she currently ranks first for: highest batting average (.371), highest slugging percentage (.710), and highest on-base percentage (.575). Her 184 career hits is tied for eighth, trailing leader Jessica Bachkora (2007-10) who has 227.

KASEY AT THE BAT

Despite missing the last four games, senior Kasey Fagan still has team-leading and league-leading statistics. Fagan ranks second on the team and 21st in the conference in batting with a .397 average. Of her 31 hits, seven have gone for doubles which ranks tied for seventh in the SEC. Fagan also posts eight multi-hit games this season and had a season-long 10-game hitting streak snapped against LSU March 6.

CANFIELD CAN

Junior Stephanie Canfield, a fixture near the top of the lineup thus far, has proven to be a triple-threat from the left side of the dish. With 10 career triples, the St. Joseph, Ill., native is tied for second all-time in school history, trailing leader Dayna Huckabee who has 12. She has eight multi-hit games this season and is third on the team in batting with a .352 average. While Wallace holds many school records, Canfield is not far behind in being a record holder herself. Consider the numbers and rankings for Canfield's career statistics: second in batting average (.360), third in on-base percentage (.407), and is fifth in slugging percentage (.489).

PRODUCTION AT THE TOP

The 1-2-3 combination of Wallace, Fagan and Canfield at the top of the lineup proved potent through the season's first 23 games. The trio combined for a .383 batting average, .371 OBP, .560 slugging, and accounted for 47 of the team's 92 RBIs at the time. Even with Fagan missing the last four games, Wallace and Canfield have continued the sizzling numbers. Over the last four, Wallace (.583) and Canfield (.429) lead the team in batting while both players post an OPS over 1.300.

TOUGH START

The beginning of Arkansas' 2015 SEC slate has shown to be one of the more difficult ones in the conference. The Razorbacks are one of three teams (Kentucky, Missouri) to open with two consecutive road series, but Arkansas is the only team to have both of those road series come against teams ranked inside the top 10.

HOME AWAY FROM HOME

The Razorbacks have gotten acquainted with road travel in the first month of the season. Poor weather conditions cancelled home tournaments scheduled for Feb. 20-22 and Feb. 27-March 1. In fact, Arkansas played at the Dot Richardson Invite Feb. 13-15 in Clermont, Fla., and with winter weather back home, the team stayed in Florida for the week and competed at the Diamond 9 Citrus Classic in Orlando Feb. 20-21. In total, the Razorbacks were gone for 11 days. Overall, between Feb. 5 and March 9, Arkansas had been on the road for 23 of the 32 days.

UNDERCLASSMEN PRODUCTION

With 20 of 28 players on this season's roster either a freshman or sophomore, plenty of production is being turned in by underclassmen. Redshirt freshman Rachel Box leads the charge for all underclassmen, batting .270 with an OBP of .357. Sophomores Nicole Schroeder (4) and Shelby Hiers (3) are responsible for seven of the team's 17 home runs.

IN THE CIRCLE

Sophomore Sydney Wright heads the charge on the staff. Appearing in 24 of 27 games with 11 starts, she has an 8-5 record to go along with a 3.09 earned-run average. She has five complete games already this season and two have come in shutout variety. Sophomore Grace Moll and freshman Allison Stewart have both started seven games, combining for a 4-8 record. Junior Claire Clark made her first career start against Texas (3/16), pitching 3.0+ innings, giving up three earned runs while striking out a pair.
